Reference materials, including the Local and Family History collection, are not loaned. These items are kept in the library for use of all patrons at all times.

Reserving/Renewing Materials

If the item desired is not on the shelf, it may be placed on hold. Holds may be placed at any public catalog terminal in the library or remotely through the library catalog on the library website. You will be notified when the item is available. Once notified that the item is available, you will have seven days to pick it up.

All materials will automatically renew four times if they are not reserved by another patron. Patrons may check item due dates by telephone at 419-422-1712, online at www.findlaylibrary.org or in person.

Effective March 1, 2019, items will no longer be charged an overdue fine for being returned late. If three or more items are overdue, accounts will be frozen and no further items may be borrowed until items are returned. After 30 days, overdue items will be considered lost and lost item charges will be applied. After 42 overdue days, delinquent accounts may be referred to a collection agency.
